PREFACE.

Nearly nine generations of Dr. Samuel Fuller's descendants have passed away without any collection of their genealogical records having been made. Meanwhile old records have been fading, wearing out, being lost, neglected and burned, as for example, the list of towns whose documents have been destroyed by fire is quite extensive.

While making a search for the records of descendants of Edward Fuller of the Mayflower, a brother of Dr. Samuel, and since publishing (in 1908) the material obtained, I have been collecting information concerning this, another of the the ancestral American Fuller families, and herewith present the results thus far obtained.

Records of this kind will always be incomplete, and in this case it is my judgment that it is time, and the safest and most advisable course, to publish what I have already obtained rather than await the slow and uncertain process of accumulation of some of the data which will be found wanting.

In regard to the term "Ancestral Fuller families," it has seemed quite appropriate to speak of those American families as ancestral, whose emigrant ancestor settled in America prior to 1650.

These heads of families so far as I know were ten in number:

Edward Fuller, born in 1575, came to America in 1620.

Dr. Samuel, born in 1580, came to America in 1620. •

John of Lynn, born in ?, came to America in 1630.

John of Newton, born in 1611, came to America in 1635.

John of Ipswich, born in 1620, came to America in 1635.

Thomas of Woburn; born in ?, came to America in 1638.

Robert of Salem, born in ?, came to America in 1638.

Robert of Dorchester, born in ?, came to America in 1640.

Captain Matthew, born in ?, came to America in 1640.

Thomas of Dedham, born in ? came to America in 1642.

In this volume the extension of data concerning those descendants not bearing the name of Fuller, has been more restricted than in the first volume, in order to keep the cost of the work within the bounds suggested by previous experience. Beyond the names and dates of birth of children of Fulier daughters, who have married those having other names than Fuller, genealogical details have generally been left to the genealogist of the allied family.

The compiler has been especially aided in the records of the earlier generations by the work of the late Newton Fuller of New London, Ct.; by the MSS. of Prof. H. W. Brainard of Hartford, Ct.; and by material furnished by F. A. Fuller of Buffalo, N. Y. and Charles M. Thatcher of Middleboro, Mass., all of whom are experienced genealogists.

Among correspondents, I have been favored by having many who were particularly interested in the work, as Mrs. L. A. Cobb, No. 148 of 1st Group; Mr. W. F. Fuller, No. 255 of 5th Group; the late Charles Richardson Smith, husband of Mrs. Nellie (Fuller) Smith, No. 319 of 5th Group; Miss Sarah M. Fuller, No. 143 of 5th Group; Mr. E. L. Philoon, descendant of No. 117 of 5th Group; Miss Mabel A., No. 226, and Mr. Linus E. Fuller, No. 116 of 12th Group, and Mrs. Anna (Fuller) Bennett, No. 69 of the 13th Group; and there are many others to whom thanks are due not only from the compiler, but also from the descendants.

Acknowledgements are also due to "The Mayflower Descendant" Magazine, the New England Historical and Genealogical Register, and the authors of numerous family genealogies for information taken from their pages.

Since it has seemed a most appropriate place, I have added to this volume a supplement containing additional information concerning the descendants of Edward Fuller of the Mayflower, and corrections of errors in Volume 1 that have been brought to my notice.

These two volumes constitute what may be considered the "Mayflower Fuller Genealogy," and by Mayflower Fullers I mean those who came to America in 1620 on the ship Mayflower, and their descendants.

In conclusion I desire to thank the printers, C. B. Fiske & Company, of Palmer, Mass., for their care and attention; the photo-engravers, especially Mr. McKinnon, of James B. McKinnon & Co., of Springfield, Mass., for his personal interest in the making of half-tone portraits, and the binder, Mr. W. J. Eldred of Springfield, for neat and substantial work on these volumes.

Wm. H. FULLER.

EXPLANATIONS.

In the arrangement of the genealogical record, each descendant bearing the surname Fuller has an individual number and also a family number.

The sign ♫ placed before the family number of a son indicates that his family record is given further on, in his group and generation, placed in order of seniority by his individual number.

In the case of daughters, it has been the intention to give immediately after their individual and family number and names, their individual genealogical record, and in case of marriage the date of the same, with name of husband, and if there are children their names and date and place of birth, their further genealogical record being generally left to the genealogist of the allied family. The explanation of the change from the record by generations to record by group and generation is given on page 22.

DR. SAMUEL FULLER LINE.

SAMUEL<sup>1</sup> FULLER, born in England; baptized there Jan. 29, 1580; d. —— 1633 in Plymouth, Mass.; m. 1, Alice Glascock; m. 2, April 24, 1613, Agnes Carpenter, who died —— 1615 in Leyden, Holland; m. 3, May 27, 1617, Bridget Lee.

Samuel<sup>1</sup> Fuller was one of the band of Pilgrims, persecuted on account of religious convictions, who escaped from England to Holland in 1608, and settled in Leyden, Holland, in 1609.

In the results of Mr. Dexter's researches among the records of Holland, published in a volume entitled "The England and Holland of the Pilgrims," Samuel<sup>1</sup> Fuller is mentioned as a witness Oct. 7, 1611, to the betrothal of Degory Priest, and to that of William White Jan. 27, 1612.

As the widower of Alice Glascock, it is recorded he was betrothed to Agnes Carpenter March 15, 1613, and the witnesses were her father, Alexander Carpenter, Edward Southworth, William White, Roger Nelson, her sister, Alice Carpenter, and his sister, Anna or Susanna (Fuller) White.

Samuel<sup>1</sup> Fuller was also a witness May 7, 1613, to the betrothal of his sister-in-law, Alice Carpenter, to Edward Southworth, and that of Samuel Terry May 16, 1614. He buried his child June 29, 1615, and his wife Agnes July 3, 1615. Later he lived in Pieterskerkhof and was a witness Aug. 7, 1615, to the betrothal of Samuel Butler, and that of Edmond Jessup Sept. 16, 1615. He was betrothed to Bridget Lee, May 12, 1617, and as witnesses there were her mother, Josephine Lee, and her brother, Samuel Lee.

They took up their residence near Marepoort, and Samuel<sup>1</sup> Fuller witnessed the betrothal of John Goodman Sept. 16, 1619. He joined with Isaac Allerton, Mr. Bradford and Mr. Winslow June 10, 1620, in a letter concerning the affairs of the Pilgrims, to their associates, Mr. Carver and Mr. Cushman, then in England.

The Pilgrims left Holland for America about Aug. 1, 1620, by way of Southampton, England, and Samuel<sup>1</sup> Fuller's name appears as one of the signers of the "Compact" drawn up for the government of the Colony at Cape Cod, in November, 1620, in the vicinity of what is now Provincetown, Mass. Some days later the Pilgrims made a permanent landing and settled at what is now Plymouth, Mass.

Bridget (Lee) Fuller, third wife of Samuel<sup>1</sup> Fuller, came to America in 1623 on the ship Anne. The date and place of her death are not now known.

Anna, or Susanna (Fuller) White, sister of Samuel<sup>1</sup> Fuller, came to America with the Pilgrims in 1620. She died in 1680. She married for her first husband William White in Holland, who died at Plymouth, March 3, 1621. She married second, Edward Winslow, who became the third governor of the Colony. It was also his second marriage. He died in 1655. By her first husband she had Peregrine White, born on the Mayflower between Dec. 7 and 10, 1620, and Resolved White. It is stated that she had several children by her second husband.

Alexander Carpenter, father of Samuel<sup>1</sup> Fuller's second wife, was from Wrington in Somerset, England, and had five daughters, Agnes, Alice, Juliana, Priscilla and Mary. The last four came to America. Alice married first Edward Southworth; second, William Bradford. Juliana married George Morton. Priscilla married William Wright. Mary remained single.

It has been said that Samuel<sup>1</sup> Fuller was also from Wrington, but from the researches of Mr. Francis H. Fuller in England, it appears he was baptized in Redenhall Parish in Harleston, Norfolk County, England, as a son of Robert Fuller. For extracts from the earliest records of the Redenhall Parish Church, reference is made to the 55th volume of the New England Historical and Genealogical Register. For a copy of the will of Robert Fuller, father of Samuel<sup>1</sup> Fuller, see the volume on "Some Descendants of Edward Fuller of the Mayflower," published by the compiler of this volume in September, 1908.

Samuel<sup>1</sup> Fuller was a physician, and the biographical sketches published mention him as eminent in his profession, devoutly pious, and wise in counsel in the affairs of the Massachusetts Bay Colony. His will, a copy of which is printed herewith, indicates that he was just, kind hearted and benevolent.

His children were :

- I. A child that died in Holland.
- 2. II. A child born in Holland that died young in Plymouth, Mass.
- 3. III. Samuel<sup>2</sup>, born about 1625; m. Elizabeth Brewster.
- 4. IV. Mary<sup>2</sup>, b. ———; m. Ralph James.

 all debtors to Joh Cheew my desire is my pt may be pd.

Mention having been made of a "Fuller Fund" for the support of the ministry of the Plymouth church, the foundation of said fund being the proceeds derived from the sale of a plot of ground on Leyden Street given to the church for a parsonage by Mrs.
 Bridget (Lee) Fuller, widow of Dr. Samuel Fuller, and Samuel Fuller his son, I wrote the pastor of the Congregational church in Plymouth and received the following: "The fund you wrote about is the "Fuller Ministerial Fund," which is used for the purpose named in your note, but not from the source you mentioned. That place was sold and the money used. The "fund" came from an unborn calf. I mean that the calf was bequeathed before it came into the world, and the proceeds of it when a cow was allowed to accumulate, and it has grown into the thousands. This is the history of the "Fuller Ministerial Fund."

Readers are referred to the item in Dr. Samuel's will, given above, relative to "the first cow calfe that my Browne Cow shall have."

SECOND GENERATION.

SAMUEL<sup>2</sup> FULLER, (Samuel<sup>1</sup>), b. ——, 1625, in Plymouth, Mass. His burial place was on the "Hill" at Plymouth, and the gravestone inscription reads: "Here lyes ye bodie of ye Rev. Samuel Fuller, who departed this life Aug. ye 17, 1695, in ye 71st year of his age. He was ye 1st minister of ye church in Middleborough."

He married Elizabeth ~~Foster~~ (Records 1st Church of Middleborough, Mass.), who died in Plympton, Mass., Nov. 11, 1713. (Plympton Records.)

Samuel<sup>2</sup> Fuller was one of the 26 original proprietors of Middleborough. The Indians burned his home there in 1676 and he returned to Plymouth until the war with them was over. He had been educated for the ministry and preached several years at Middleborough, but was not ordained until 1694. His biographers describe him as a sober, grave, industrious, enlightened, and self-denying man.

His children were:

- 5. I. Mercy<sup>3</sup>, b. about 1656; m. Daniel Cole.
- 6. ♫II. Samuel<sup>3</sup>, b. about 1659; m. Mercy Eaton.
- 7. III. Experience<sup>3</sup>, b. about 1661; m. April 2, 1693, James Wood and had sons Benjamin, Barnabas,
Abel and Ichabod. James or Jonathan
- 8. ♫IV. John<sup>3</sup>, b. 1663; m. Mercy Nelson.
- 9. V. Elizabeth<sup>3</sup>, b. 1666; m. May 24, 1694, Samuel Eaton, b. 1665.
- 10. VI. Hannah<sup>3</sup>, b. 1668; m. Eleazer Lewis.
- 11. ♫VII. Isaac<sup>3</sup>, b. 1675; m. Mary Pratt.

Settlement of Rev. Samuel Fuller's Estate.

Rev. Samuel Fuller, son of Dr. Samuel Fuller of the Mayflower, died intestate at Middleborough 17 August, 1695, and his widow Elizabeth was appointed administratrix 25 September, 1695. The record of this appointment and of the inventory taken 5 September 1695, may be found in the Plymouth County Probate Records, volume I, page 223. On page 224 is recorded the appointment of a guardian for the minor son Isaac, and on pages 246 and 247 is the agreement between the heirs.

The appointment and the administration bond are omitted here as not being of great genealogical interest.

 35. V. Micah<sup>4</sup>, b. Jan. 31, 1719/20. Mr. Linus E. Fuller, of 12th Group, 8th Generation, states that his grandfather gave information to Rufus<sup>7</sup>, his nephew, April 1, 1834, to the effect that Micah Fuller lived in Worcester, Mass., but his home was burned by Indians and he removed to Old Hadley, Mass., but was again burned out by Indians and removed to Schenectady, N. Y.; stated that Micah was wealthy; owned mills; dropped dead in a mill. Rufus<sup>7</sup> made a memorandum of this information which was found after his death, and a copy given to Mr. Linus E. Fuller. I have found nothing in histories of the above places relating to Micah Fuller.
 36. ♦VI. Jabez<sup>4</sup>, b. May 7, 1723; m. Elizabeth Hilliard.
 37. VII. Mary<sup>4</sup>, b. Aug. 23, 1726.

Explanation of Group Arrangement.

From this point the arrangement of the work is made similar to that found so satisfactory in the Edward Fuller volume. Sons of the third generation are made the heads of groups, and the genealogy of each group completed by itself by generations, as before, with individual numbering relative to the groups and family numbering, as before. The sons, who have had families, form heads of 14 groups arranged in order of seniority of the fathers.

Group Number	Individual Number	LINEAGE.	Date of Birth

"Isaac Fuller learned the printer's trade, and at 18 was editing "The Independent," at Montrose, Pa., and later "The Wayne County Herald." He removed to Seneca Falls in 1837, and founded the "Seneca County Courier." He was active in political affairs and a leader in the county; was postmaster 1841-1845; county clerk 1853; postmaster again 1861-1869; then proof reader in the government printing office for 24 years until his resignation in 1893.

"Mr. Fuller was a man of peculiarly pure life. He was honest, energetic, upright, courteous and affable. He never used tobacco or liquors in any form. His temperament was extremely buoyant. He always saw the bright side of affairs, and was singularly sensitive to the humorous. His hearty laugh and genial greeting are remembered by all who knew him; yet was he a vigorous fighter, sturdy, resolute and resourceful, as his opponents in the old days were well aware." E. Laton
Fuller

10, 1851, in Hawley, Pa.; d. Jan. 29, 1909, in Augusta, Ga., whither he had gone from his Scranton home accompanied by his physician. The immediate cause of death was apoplexy. He m. Sept. 28, 1876, Helen Maria Silkman of Scranton, b. Sept. 11, 1854.

Mr. Fuller received a common school education and entered the employment of a prominent mercantile house. Later he started in business for himself, but conditions and circumstances not being favorable his first adventures proved disastrous. He persevered however, and directing his attention to acquiring and operating coal properties, became recognized as one of the most capable and efficient individual operators. Later, he sold his collieries and organized the International Salt Company. He was also a railroad director and promoter; director Pennsylvania Casualty Co.; director Wyoming Shovel Works; treasurer Lackawanna Hospital; president board of trustees, Second Presbyterian Church; member Scranton Board of Trade, and of the Municipal League. Socially, Mr. Fuller was as active as in business, being a member of various local clubs, and also of the Maryland Club of Baltimore, the Buffalo Club of Buffalo, N. Y., of various New York clubs, and of the New England societies of both Scranton and New York. Mr. Fuller was not ostentatious. It was an article of his creed that wealth was a trust to be administered by its owner for the benefit of all whom it could wisely be made to reach, and that the trust should be discharged, as far as possible, personally and not by will. It was thoroughly characteristic of him and his wife that they chose as a method of celebrating their silver wedding the building of an addition to their church, in order that its activities might be widened and facilitated.

Mr. Fuller was deservedly popular. He possessed rare personal charms, manly vigor, a frank and open disposition, unusual conversational ability and unfailing cheerfulness. Perhaps his most striking quality was his dauntless courage. His spirit seemed to rise superior to every disaster and to take fresh impulse from multiplied obstacles. He was deeply loved by all who came most closely in contact with him, and his loss will be deeply felt by a country-wide circle of friends. (Gleanings from Scranton, Pa., Tribune, Jan. 30, 1909.)

CORRECTIONS AND ADDITIONS.

Mr. Frederick Pardee Fuller, number 336 of the 5th Group in Vol. II of Fuller Genealogy, (see page 99), states in a letter dated at Yonkers, N. Y., Oct. 11, 1910, that he is the husband of Margaret Stevens (Cissel) Fuller, while Theodore S. Fuller, his brother, remains unmarried.

Mr. F. P. Fuller also gives the date of birth of his son, and states that the date of birth of his father, number 178 of said group, should be given as March 13, 1837, instead of May 13, 1837. Hence paragraphs attached to individual numbers 178, 336 and 337 of the 5th group need correcting in these particulars, and on page 108, substituting the individual number 336 for 337, the attached data should be as follows :

336. FREDERICK PARDEE<sup>9</sup> FULLER, (Frederick<sup>8</sup>, George<sup>7</sup>, Edward<sup>6</sup>, Issachar<sup>5</sup>, John<sup>4</sup>, Samuel<sup>3</sup>, Samuel<sup>2</sup>, Samuel<sup>1</sup>), b. May 18, 1871, in Scranton, Pa.; m. Nov. 15, 1904, Margaret Stevens Cissel, b. Jan. 17, 1878.

Children :

416. I. Katherine Barnard<sup>10</sup>, b. Jan. 9, 1908.
416a. II. Frederick Richard<sup>10</sup>, b. Aug. 20, 1909.

The original data was taken from manuscript of the late C. R. Smith that was kindly loaned to me by Mrs. Nellie (Fuller) Smith, number 319 of the 5th Group, who died June 4, 1910.

19. ♫X. Otis<sup>6</sup>, b. Sept. 29, 1785; m. 1, Minerva Curtis; m. 2, Laura Wiley.

In answer to inquiries concerning Isaiah's family, the Brockton City Clerk states that Jacob, born in 1776, is the only child of Isaiah's mentioned in Mitchell's or Kingman's Histories of Bridgewater and North Bridgewater, apparently assuming that these histories contain all the information the vital records of those towns contain regarding him. The U. S. census for 1790 mentions Isaiah in Bridgewater with six persons in his family, and also in Warwick with the same number. The volumes of "Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors of the Revolution" credit Isaiah Fuller of Bridgewater with service in the Revolutionary war. The "History of Warwick" mentions Isaiah Fuller in a list of house owners in Warwick in 1798. The vital records of the town of Warwick, according to the town clerk, contain no mention of Isaiah Fuller.

Mr. Linus E. Fuller (No. 116 of this Group) states that Isaiah Fuller was described by Lennel<sup>6</sup> (No. 11 of this Group) to a nephew as a man of middle size with blue eyes and dark hair, and his wife as a beautiful woman of a very respectable Bridgewater family. Mr. L. E. Fuller has visited the Warwick and Winchester cemeteries, but thinks that Isaiah, Isaiah's widow, and Isaiah's father, Isaac, are buried in a small graveyard near the northeast corner of Warwick which he had not time to visit.

The children of Isaiah and Mary, according to descendants and others, were:

20. I. "John<sup>6</sup>, the oldest, went to sea and was never heard from."?

- 21. ♦II. Jacob<sup>6</sup>, b. 1776; m. Abigail Leonard.
- 22. III. A dau., b. ———; m. ———; probably removed West.
- 23. ♦IV. Henry<sup>6</sup>, b. 1780; m. Hannah Cobb.
- 24. ♦V. Seth<sup>6</sup>, b. 1782; m. 1, ———; m. 2, Pruda Cutter.
- 25. VI. Samuel<sup>6</sup>, b. ———.
- 26. ♦VII. James<sup>6</sup>, b. 1793; m. Nancy Lesuire.

Information about John and date of birth of James came from Mr. Hoyt E. Fuller (No. 202 of this Group); that about Jacob from the Brainard MSS. and Brockton city clerk. The names of Henry, Seth, Samuel and James, and information in regard to their sister, from Mrs. Augustus Fuller, widow of No. 99 of this Group, who thinks Seth and Samuel were in business together in Boston as bell-hangers. Mr. H. D. Learnard of Boston furnished date of death of Mary (Keyser) Fuller, and genealogical data regarding Seth, and the town clerk of Warwick the names, etc., of children of Henry and James.

8. BENJAMIN<sup>5</sup> FULLER, (Isaac<sup>4</sup>, Isaac<sup>3</sup>, Samuel<sup>2</sup>, Samuel<sup>1</sup>), b. Sept. 22, 1754, in North Bridgewater, Mass.; d. ———; m. Sept., 1777, Sarah Ames, who d. April 1, 1812, aged 58 years, dau. of Daniel Ames.

Benjamin Fuller removed after 1777 to Winchester, N. H. He has been described as a tall man with light hair and blue eyes, and it is said was possessed of a handsome property.

His children were :

- 27. I. Daniel<sup>6</sup>, b. July 24, 1779 (also given July 1).
- 28. II. Lois<sup>6</sup>, b. Feb. 4, 1782 (also given Feb. 1); d. Oct. 26, 1863, aged 82; unmarried. (Gravestone Record.)

Mr. Fuller was the well-known contractor and President of the George A. Fuller Construction Company, which still does business under that name, with offices in the principal cities of the United States. He was the originator of the modern steel skeleton skyscraper building and one of the foremost contractors of the country. He erected many buildings in Chicago, including the Monadnock, New York Life, Kearsarge, Rand-McNally, Tacoma, Marshall Field and Reliance buildings; the Woman's Temple, Masonic Temple, Ashland Block, Chicago Athletic Club, and Great Northern Theatre. He constructed many buildings of the Chicago World's Fair. He was educated at Andover, after which he took a special course in the Boston School of Technology. Making most of his estimates himself he was a master of details, and of rare executive ability.

William Eddy Fuller is Judge of Probate and Insolvency for Bristol County, Mass., and resides in Taunton, Mass.

Judge Fuller received his early education in the common school and the academies of South Woodstock and Randolph, Vt. He entered Dartmouth College in 1852, and Harvard College in his Junior year and graduated in 1856. After teaching for several years, five of which were as principal of the Taunton High School, he began the study of law, and was admitted to the Bristol County bar in 1863. From 1868 to 1883 he was Register of Probate and Insolvency for Bristol County, and was then appointed Judge in the same offices by Governor Benjamin F. Butler, which offices he continues to hold after 25 years of service. Judge Fuller served for many years as member of Taunton School Board, as trustee of Bristol Academy, and member of the Old Colony Historical Society. He has delivered many public addresses on literary and historical occasions. In 1891 he published a book on Massachusetts Probate Laws, now in its second edition, a handbook in use by the legal profession of the state and regarded as one of the most valuable works on the subject. He is vice president of the Taunton Savings Bank and director in Taunton National Bank. His religious connections have been with the Unitarian church and in politics he is a Republican.

APPENDIX.

The following letter from Prof. H. W. Brainard of Hartford, Ct., recently received, is of interest:

HARTFORD, June 28, 1910.

DEAR SIR :

The following is important, and may be new to you. It was sent me by my friend, Frank F. Starr, the genealogist, of Middletown. It refers to Elizabeth Fuller, wife of Rev. Samuel Fuller of Plymouth and Middleboro, and she died at Plympton, about 1713. I think you must have the exact date. Whether she was Fuller's only wife, and the mother of his children, I cannot say. She must have married Fuller after April 11, 1663, and was widow then of Thomas Bowen of Marblehead, New London and Rehoboth, who was brother to Richard and Obadiah Bowen of Rehoboth.

New London County Court records, Vol. 2, fifth leaf from the end :

May 2, 1667. Power of attorney. Elizabeth ffuller of Towne of Plimouth in the Jurisdiction of Plimouth—sometime the wife of Thomas Bowen Late of Rehoboth in the Jurisdiction Aforesd, Cooper, deceased, and Samuel ffuller of the Towne of Plimouth—to our well beloved Brother-in-lawe John Prentice of New London in new England. Blacksmith, land in New London, sometime the land of said Thomas Bowen. I the sayde Elizabeth ffuller being Exequitrix unto the sd Thomas Bowen,—as by his will dated April 11, 1663. Power to sell the lands.

Thomas Cushman, }
Bridgett ffuller, } witnesses.

This also shows that Bridget, widow of Deacon and Dr. Samuel Fuller, was living May 2, 1667.

Very truly yours,

HOMER W. BRAINARD.

Since receiving the above mentioned letter, I find that Savage, in his Genealogical Dictionary, printed 50 years ago, says: "Thomas Bowen, Salem, 1648, was of New London 1657-60; rem. to Rehoboth 1663. His wid. Elizabeth was in 1669 w. of Samuel Fuller of Plymouth. His will of 11 April 1663, made her extrix, names his s. Richard and br. Obadiah. Thomas Bowen of Marblehead 1674 may have been son of Thomas of Salem 1648."

Also, "Samuel Fuller of Plymouth, son of first Samuel had w. Elizabeth, but was not married before 1650."

In Felt's "Annals of Salem," Vol. 1, Thomas Bowen is in list of first settlers "mentioned as of this place." No other reference to him found.

In the "Supplementary Vital Records of Marblehead," item from Court Records, Vol. 1, page 56, mentions Thomas Bowen "aged abt. 24 y; his wife Elizabeth, 26-10 m. 1646." Also Vol. 6, p. 151, "Thomas Bowen, w. Elizabeth mentioned June 1661."

Also, Vol. 14, p. 116, "Thomas Bowen a. abt. 45 y. dep. June T. 1669." The "History of the First Church of Roxbury, Mass., says John Prentice came over with his father Valentine in 1631; removed to New London, 1652; blacksmith. Valentine Prentice died 1633 and his widow Alice m. John Watson.

Ellis, in his "History of Roxbury," says Valentine Prentice brought but one child, his son John.

In the matter of dates of birth of Rev. Samuel Fuller's children, I have followed on page 15 those given in the Brainard and F. A. Fuller MSS., but I notice on page 20 the birth of John<sup>3</sup> (Samuel<sup>2</sup>, Samuel<sup>1</sup>) is given as "about 1668," and the Brainard MSS. gives the same year, which is probably an error, as John would be but about 18 years of age when married about 1686-7. I find also that the statement in the Brainard MSS. (which I have given on page 15), that the burial place of Rev. Samuel Fuller was on the "Hill" at Plymouth is incorrect, and on inquiry of Charles M. Thatcher of Middleboro, he says Rev. Samuel Fuller was buried in Nemasket Hill Cemetery, Middleboro, and the gravestone is still standing.

Davis, in his "Ancient Landmarks of Plymouth," 1883, says: "Samuel, son of Samuel of the Mayflower, by w. Elizabeth had Mercy m. Daniel Cole, Samuel 1659, Experience m. James Wood, John, Elizabeth m. Samuel Eaton, Hannah m. Eleazer Lewis, and Isaac." Now Davis, so far as I have noticed in that volume, gives the children in the order of birth in his genealogical record, but Prof. Brainard, in a later letter of July 14, 1910, states that he finds in the Mayflower Descendants, Vol. 8, p. 3, that "Daniel Cole died 15 June 1736 in 70th year," and "Mercy, wife of Daniel, died Sept. 25, 1735, in 63d year"—"Gravestones, Ancient Cemetery, Eastham, Mass." Then Mercy, wife of Daniel Cole, was born in 1672 or 1673.

Was this Mercy, Mercy Fuller, dau. of Rev. Samuel Fuller? This letter of Prof. Brainard's is one in answer to my inquiry as to his authority for the dates of birth of Rev. Samuel Fuller's children given in his MSS., so often quoted. This letter contains no other new facts fixing the dates of birth of the other children.

In answer to a letter of inquiry to Mr. F. A. Fuller, he states that "about all his data was furnished by Newton Fuller." (Both Brainard and F. A. Fuller exchanged genealogical information with the late Newton Fuller.)

Weston, in his History of Middleboro, published 1906, says Rev. Samuel Fuller's wife was Elizabeth Brewster. Prof. Brainard says the same in his MSS., and adds, "Tradition says dau. of Elder Brewster, but research does not confirm it." Dr. Sarah E. Crocker of Boston, who has made extended researches in this direction, states in a letter of July 5, 1910, that this tradition has been disproved, and also incidentally that the late Chipman Fuller of Halifax told her that Ebenezer Fuller, his grandfather (?), "when the Middleboro church records were burned, supplied the church with a list of names from his own records, and adds "that it is strange that he should have recorded the maiden name of Samuel Fuller's wife as Brewster."

A Washington, D. C., correspondent finds that the Bowen family genealogies in the library there only relate to the Woodstock, Ct., family and a foreign family of Wales. Prof. Brainard mentions in his MSS. that the "Elizabeth Brewster, dau. of Jonathan and Lucretia Oldham Brewster, who married Peter Brawley of New London, died in 1654."

I have mentioned these facts in a hurried and irregular way, as it is necessary for me to furnish this MSS. to the printer and close up the work on this volume.

CORRECTIONS IN 5TH GROUP.

Homer Taylor Fuller, number 141, was Principal of St. Johnsbury Academy from 1871 instead of 1872, and the degree of Ph. D. was conferred by Dartmouth instead of Iowa college, as stated in the newspaper clipping.

Henry Jones Fuller, number 291, graduated in 1895 from the Worcester Polytechnic Institute and is President of the Canadian Fairbanks Co., whose business has had a marvelous growth under his efficient management.

A correspondent, a relative of John H. Fuller, number 128, has just enclosed to me a newspaper clipping without date, mentioning "the funeral of Mrs. Emma Cushman Fuller, wife of John H. Fuller of Rockingham Ave.," "born in Dover, N. H., 82 years ago;" "survived by her husband, one son, John S. Fuller, five granddaughters and two grandsons."

SUPPLEMENT

TO THE

GENEALOGY

OF THE MAYFLOWER.”

PREFACE.

In 1908 I published the above-mentioned volume, and the following pages contain additional information concerning Edward Fuller's descendants gained from correspondents, from research, from other genealogists and those interested in Fuller genealogy. That volume is referred to in these pages as Volume 1. Mr. F. A. Fuller, number 301 of the 6th Group, Vol. 1, formerly of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., now of Buffalo, who published in 1896 a leaflet on "Mayflower Fuller Genealogy," has found much relating to the first and tenth groups; Miss Clara C. Fuller of Holland Patent and Ossining, N. Y., most of that relating to her branch in the first group, and Mrs. Gardner Fuller, wife of number 74 of the twenty-sixth group, has given much aid in tracing the families of that group. In this supplement the individual numbering in the group is discontinued except numbers taken from Vol. 1. The supplement has its own separate index.

Wm. H. FULLER.

Palmer, July, 1910.

EXPLANATION FOR THE SUPPLEMENT.

The names of the sons who have families and whose record is extended are printed in heavier type and the use of the symbol ♫ is discontinued.

SUPPLEMENT TO VOLUME I OF FULLER GENEALOGY.

There is no additional information concerning descendants in the earlier generations not grouped in Volume I.

FIRST GROUP.

SIXTH GENERATION.

7. LOT<sup>6</sup> FULLER, (Samuel<sup>5</sup>, Barnabas<sup>4</sup>, Samuel<sup>3</sup>, Samuel<sup>2</sup>, Edward<sup>1</sup>), b. Sept. 18, 1733, in Barnstable, Mass.; d. July 12, 1811, in Sandisfield, Mass.; m. ——, Rachel ——, probably in Colchester, Ct.? who d. Feb. 28, 1812.

He came to Bolton, Ct., where he and his w. Rachel joined the church April 13, 1760. In 1768 he bought land in Sandisfield, where he and his wife were admitted to the church May 7, 1769. Lot Fuller is mentioned on Conn. French and Indian War Rolls, June 9 to Dec. 1, 1756, 2d Regt.

Children, born in Bolton, Ct. (In preparing the MSS. for Vol. I, a list of births of these children was overlooked, which contained Simeon's name, and a list of baptisms used, which did not include Simeon):

I. Lot<sup>7</sup>, b. May 6, 1760. Lot Fuller was a soldier in the Revolutionary war, and the U. S. Pension Records give following information concerning him: "Born at Bolton, Ct., May 6, 1760; date of death not stated; date of application for pension, Sept. 11, 1832; claim allowed; residence at date of application, Floyd, Oneida Co., N. Y.; residence at enlistment, Sandisfield, Mass.; battles engaged in—Taking of Burgoyne; date of first enlistment, Sept., 1776; of last enlistment, July, 1778; length of service, 7 months in all; rank, private. Soldier's brother Simeon was 70 years old and a resident of Steuben, N. Y., in 1832. No other data as to family."

Jones' History of Oneida Co., N. Y., mentions Lot Fuller on jury, 1801. The Potter family genealogy mentions the marriage of Eliza Jane Potter, b. Sept. 7, 1804, dau. of John and Hannah Potter, to Lot Fuller, Dec. 10, 1827, perhaps a son of Lot<sup>7</sup> Fuller.

II. SIMEON<sup>7</sup>, b. Oct. 21, 1762; m. 1, Mary Cook; m. 2, Wealthy Woodward Horton.

III. Judah<sup>7</sup>, b. Feb. 3, 1765. See Vol. 1.

IV. Rachel<sup>7</sup>, b. April 16, 1767. Nothing further found—not mentioned by Sandisfield town clerk as on the vital records. Children, b. in Sandisfield: See Vol. 1. Nothing additional learned of them.

SEVENTH GENERATION.

13. SAMUEL<sup>7</sup> FULLER, (Joshua<sup>6</sup>, Samuel<sup>5</sup>, Barnabas<sup>4</sup>, Samuel<sup>3</sup>, Samuel<sup>2</sup>, Edward<sup>1</sup>), b. Dec. 25, 1752, in Bolton, Ct.; d. 1841, at Brant, Erie Co., N. Y.; m. Esther Flagg and settled in Burlington, Vt.

He was a private in Col. Ashley's Regt. in 1776, and later a sergeant in Col. Moses Nichols' Regt. at Saratoga in 1777, and was present at the battle of Bennington, Aug. 16, 1777.

His children were:

- I. Joshua<sup>8</sup>, b. July 18, 1781 or 1782.
- II. Joanna<sup>8</sup> or Nancy, b. Dec. 28, 1785; m. —— Spear.
- III. Mary Lovisa<sup>8</sup>, b. April 16, 1787; m. Dec. 4, 1805, Enan Clark at Burlington, Vt., and had: Lewis<sup>9</sup>, Clarissa<sup>9</sup>, Asa<sup>9</sup>, Reuben W.<sup>9</sup> and one other child, a daughter.
- IV. Esther<sup>8</sup>, b. June 1, 1789; m. —— Flagg.
- V. DANIEL<sup>8</sup>, b. June 9, 1792; m. Siba Chittenden.
- VI. William<sup>8</sup>, b. Oct. 5, 1794.
- VII. ASA<sup>8</sup>, b. April 27, 1798; m. 1, Abigail ——; m. 2, Hannah Pierce.

Captain Simeon Fuller.

Simeon Fuller was a soldier of the Revolution, and the U. S. Pension records show that he enlisted April 17, 1781, from Sandisfield, Mass., and served as private until the fall of 1782 under Captain Fox, Col. Henry Jackson's Regt.; re-enlisted and served until Jan. 4, 1784, under Capt. Fowler, Col. Greaton's Regt.; applied for pension July 4, 1832, from Steuben, Oneida Co., N. Y., and claim was allowed.

"Soldier's age at date of application 70 years, and soldier's brother Lot was 72 years of age and a resident of Floyd, N. Y., in 1832. No other data as to family.

Simeon Fuller is the only soldier of that name in the Mass. or N. Y. service found on the Revolutionary war pension records. On Mass. war rolls described as 5 ft. 7 in., with light complexion and light hair. He resided for a time in Fort Ann, Washington Co., N. Y., where he was a captain of militia; removed to Steuben about 1792; was a pioneer settler there and one of the most highly respected men of the county.

Children, except the first two, all b. in Steuben, N. Y.:

- I. Mary<sup>8</sup>, b. Feb. 17, 1786; d. Jan., 1813; m. Sept. 7, 1807, Daniel Douglas and had: Alanson<sup>9</sup>, b. Aug. 15, 1808, and George<sup>9</sup>, b. Aug. 10, 1811.
- II. SIMEON<sup>8</sup>, b. July 25, 1791; m. Minerva Sprague.
- III. RUSSELL<sup>8</sup>, b. Sept. 5, 1795; m. Lydia J. Potter.
- IV. JOHN WOODWARD<sup>8</sup>, b. June 29, 1797; m. 1, Mariah Barnes; m. 2, Marietta Shurtleff.
- V. Catherine<sup>8</sup>, b. April 14, 1800; d. Dec. 18, 1886, at Watertown, N. Y.; m. Feb. 7, 1821, John W. Pierce, b. Aug. 15, 1798, in Philadelphia, Pa.; d. July 4, 1877. Their children were: John F.<sup>9</sup>, b. May 18, 1822, at Remsen, N. Y.; Lydia Ann<sup>9</sup>, b. Nov. 24, 1823, at Remsen; William G.<sup>9</sup>, b. Sept. 26, 1826, in Floyd, N. Y., where also were born Wealthy<sup>9</sup>, Dec. 10, 1829; Simeon F.<sup>9</sup>, Sept. 25, 1831; Isaac<sup>9</sup>, Aug. 3, 1833; DeWitt C.<sup>9</sup>, Sept. 12, 1835; Russell F.<sup>9</sup>, Feb. 28, 1838; George<sup>9</sup>, April 28, 1840; Charles E.<sup>9</sup>, Oct. 11, 1842, and Franklin<sup>9</sup>, Oct. 12, 1845.

EIGHTH GENERATION.

33. DANIEL<sup>8</sup> FULLER, (Samuel<sup>7</sup>, Joshua<sup>6</sup>, Samuel<sup>5</sup>, Barnabas<sup>4</sup>, Samuel<sup>3</sup>, Samuel<sup>2</sup>, Edward<sup>1</sup>), b. June 9, 1792; d. May 11, 1866, in Irving, N. Y.; m. 1816, Siba Chittenden, who d. Oct. 25, 1841, at Brant, Erie Co., N. Y.

Daniel Fuller served in the war of 1812 and in 1816 was keeping an inn in Burlington, Vt., and removed to Hamburg, or Brant, N. Y., about 1828.
